

Think Write Share

1. What did you learn from this workshop segment that was familiar and/or reassuring?
2. What did you learn from this workshop segment that may have challenged any of your views about community engagement?
3. What did you learn from this workshop segment that may have challenged any of your views about creativity and risk-taking in community engagement?
4. Are there any other areas of knowledge or understanding you would like to build to enhance your understanding of the value of creativity and risk-taking in community engagement?